
Field

Projects
Physics

Subject

Introduction to Project of Design
Physics applied to Design

roliva@eina.edu
www.rauloliva.com

Raul Oliva Santos (Málaga, 1978), graduated in Architecture by the Superior Technical School of Architecture of Vallès of UPC (Barcelona, 2003) but did much part of his studies in the School of Architecture of Sevilla. He has a MA in Theory and History of Architecture from the Polytechnic University of Catalonia (Barcelona, 2010) and is currently immersed in her PhD on technological developments in graphical representation of the past 25 years and its influence on architectural design.

Teaching

He teaches the courses Introduction to Project of Design and Physics Applied to Design (2009-2010) for first-year design degree in school Eina. Where he also teaches the courses Computer Workshop III for interior design in the third year of Interior Design Graduate and Computer Presentations for Interior Design Projects in the fourth year.

He is teacher-coordinator of the summer courses of professional specialization Advanced Techniques of re-presentation of architecture and interiors, also in school Eina.

Professional Activity / Research

Self-employed in his study of architecture and interior RaúlOlivaArquitecto SL, is always between Barcelona and Malaga in projects of building and town planning.

He founded the architecture and design studio tres arquitectes associats SCP (Barcelona, 2004) where he began his professional activity. He has also collaborated with eminent architectural offices, among others: Archi21, Tribobes, FFPV Architecture, Architect ... Jaume Avellaneda

He has attended numerous conferences including architecture V Congress DOCOMOMO Iberian / International Symposium on GATCPAC time, politics, culture and architecture in the thirties (Barcelona, 2005).

He has done numerous commissions of digital graphics among which digital art image The splendor of La Pedrera, custom made by the Fundació Caixa Catalunya for the exhibition The Splendor of Ruins held in the building of La Pedrera (Barcelona, 2005).

Publications

(only listed the 5 most recent publications)

Publication of the Flors a la Teulada house, built by tres arquitectes associats SCP Rovira, JM, 1996-2006 Premis d'Arquitectura a Girona. Un repàs crític. 10 Premis d'Arquitectura de les comarques de Girona 2006. Girona: Demarcació de Girona del Col·legi d'Arquitectes de Catalunya, 2006.

Oliva, Raúl. "... Sobre el procés mental de Re-Presentació artística ...". Revista del Departament d'Història, Teoria i Composició Arquitectòniques. Barcelona: ETSA, 2005.

Oliva, Raul. Photography and digital art The splendor of La Pedrera. Published in numerous magazines and national newspapers. 2005.

Director and filmmaker of the short film Five Shadows, premiered in the Superior Technical School of Architecture of Vallès (Barcelona, 2002).

Work

(only list the 5 most recent)

<http://www.rauloliva.com>

From the study of architecture and interior RaülOlivaArquitecto SL:

Basic design, project execution and management of isolated single-family housing construction Antonio and Pilar, an homage to Mies, in Cañete la Real, Málaga, 2009.

Partial Urban Plan La Alpargata, in Cañete la Real, Málaga, 2009.

Basic Project, project execution and construction management for rehabilitation and expansion of the homestead Can Batllell and its adaptation for use of luxury hotels in Gelida Chateaufort Spain, Barcelona, 2009.

Urban plan Mas Bach for wine cellars of Clos de JM Bach Barenys i Fills, DO Tarragona, Vila-seca, Tarragona, 2008.

Project execution and management of works for a wine-making and aging wine. Caves Bohigas, D.O. Penedès and D.O. Catalonia in Gelida, Barcelona, 2008.