
Field

Projects
Computing

Subject

Computing Resources for Design
Introduction to the Project of Design

ovventura@eina.edu
ventura@nietoventura.com
www.nietoventura.com

Oriol Ventura Rodà (Barcelona 1979) is an industrial designer graduated from the University of Fine Arts at UB. He attended the final year of specialization in industrial design at the Politecnico di Milano. In 2003 he received the diploma of Technician in Solid Works Drafter by the CIM Center and got the CAP (Pedagogical Aptitude Course) by the Polytechnic University of Catalonia. He is currently pursuing a master of artistic productions and design research for a doctorate access.

Teaching

He is Professor of Computer Science degree of product design at Eina Design Degree and associate professor at the University of Fine Arts at UB where he has taught the subjects of Design and Packaging and Techniques and Technologies (Projects) of the Second Cycle.

He has participated as a speaker at various conferences and courses of products related to the optimization of architectural space as the Technical Seminar of the UPC-EAV, "Lecture series at the University of Architecture of Grenada" or the "Second Congress of Asemaste."

Professional Activity / Research

After collaborating with industrial design firms Ignasi Paré and Josep Teruel, entered as head of the Department of System Design of Bal Enterprises (2003), a company where he still works today. In 2005 he was part of the founders of Studio Magari, and finally in 2007 with Javier Nieto founded the multidisciplinary design studio Nieto & Ventura.

Publications

He has published design projects in magazines and books, such as Tectónica, On Diseño, Nan, Oficinas o Casa Barcelona.

Works

www.nietoventura.com